Procter Gamble Careers

About Procter & Gamble (P&G):

P&G was established quite a long time back as a straightforward cleanser and candle organization. Today, we're the world's biggest buyer products organization and home to famous confided-in brands that make life somewhat more straightforward in little yet significant ways. We've spread over three centuries on account of three straightforward thoughts: administration, development, and citizenship.

Procter Gamble Careers

The understanding, advancement, and energy of capable groups have assisted us with developing into a worldwide organization that is administered mindfully and morally, that is open and straightforward, and that upholds great aims and safeguards the climate. Here you can be glad to work and accomplish something that is important.

Values :

Our purpose, values, and principles inform P&G's business behaviour policies. Our policies are aspirational declarations of the ways in which we intend to apply our purpose, values, and principles to significant, all-encompassing concerns and societal norms. P&G puts a lot of effort into competing for leadership positions and commercial success, but the company is also concerned with how those results are attained. Nowhere in the world will we ever support or tolerate attempts or actions to achieve results through questionable or unethical business practices.

Policy on Employee Rights

We are equally committed to enhancing the lives of our employees in line with our purpose of offering branded goods and services of exceptional quality and value that enhance the lives of consumers around the world, both now and for future generations. The cornerstones of our success are the P&G Brands and P&G People. As we concentrate on enhancing consumers' lives both now and for future generations, P&G People bring our Values to life.
